

Promoter screening scorecard

Score every applicant on the same six things. 100 points total. Nothing else counts.

Criterion	Pts	What a full score looks like
1. Weekday daytime availability 4-hour shifts, Mon–Fri	25	Full 25: free 3+ weekdays, 11am–3pm or 2pm–6pm, can start this week. 15: 2 weekdays. 8: weekends only. 0: evenings only.
2. Communication in the first 5 minutes Judged live on the call	20	Full 20: warm, clear, answers in full sentences, asks a question back. 10: polite but flat, one-word answers. 0: hard to hear or follow.
3. Face-to-face experience Retail, F&B, roadshow, events	15	Full 15: 6+ months approaching strangers — roadshow, retail floor, F&B service. 8: some counter service. 0: no public-facing work at all.
4. Languages Sim Lim / Funan shop owners	15	Full 15: conversational English plus Mandarin or Malay. 9: English only, confident. 0: cannot hold an English conversation.
5. Commitment through the launch 8 weeks minimum	15	Full 15: commits to 8+ weeks, no exam period or trip in the way. 7: 4–6 weeks. 0: "a week or two", or leaving Singapore.
6. Can demo the app Sign-up is the KPI	10	Full 10: own smartphone with data, comfortable walking someone through an app. 5: has phone, unsure about demoing. 0: no usable phone or data.

The cut-off

Score	Decision	Action
70 – 100	HIRE	Send the offer message the same day. Confirm shift days and get the name spelling for the badge.
55 – 69	BACKUP	Hold. Call back only if we are short of 15 by 5 September.
Below 55	NO	Send the decline template within 48 hours. Do not leave it silent.

Score only these six things. Do not record, discuss or decide on gender, age, race, religion, marital status, nationality or family situation. MyCareersFuture postings are screened by MOM/TAFEP and the notes in this file are the record of how we decided. Keep the record clean and the decision is defensible.

Tie-breaker — same score, take the one who can start earlier. Launch is 1 September.

The 5-minute call

Six questions, in this order. Write the score next to each one while they answer.

OPEN — 20 SECONDS

"Hi, is this [name]? This is Scott from TCG Express — you applied for the part-time promoter role. Is now an okay time for about five minutes?"

1 "Which weekdays are you free, and roughly what hours?"

Criterion 1 · 25 pts · Ask this first — if the answer is evenings only, the rest does not matter.

Good: "Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, anytime before 6."

Weak: "Depends on my schedule, I'll let you know." → push once: "This week, which days?"

2 "Tell me about a job where you had to talk to people you didn't know."

Criterion 3 · 15 pts · Also where you hear criterion 2 — let them talk for a full minute.

Good: names the place, the product, what they said to open.

Weak: "I'm quite shy but I can try."

3 "Our shops are in Sim Lim Square and Funan. What languages can you hold a conversation in?"

Criterion 4 · 15 pts · Ask what they speak, never where they are from.

Good: "English and Mandarin, both fine."

4 "The job runs from 1 September through the launch. Can you commit to at least eight weeks?"

Criterion 5 · 15 pts · Badges are printed with their name — a two-week promoter costs us money.

Weak: "Until my school reopens" → ask for the date, then score it.

5 "Do you have a smartphone with data you can use on shift? You'll show shop owners how to scan a QR and sign up."

Criterion 6 · 10 pts

6 "Any questions for me?"

Criterion 2 · part of the 20 pts · A good promoter asks about pay, hours or the product. Silence is a signal.

Close the call — say this to everyone

CLOSE — 30 SECONDS

"To be clear on the pay: S$12 an hour, plus S$2 for every shop that signs up, paid weekly by PayNow. Four-hour shifts. No cold selling and no quota — you're showing people an app, not pressuring them.
I'll come back to you by tomorrow either way. Thanks for your time."

Never promise on the call. "You're hired" belongs in the written offer, not the phone. Score first, compare, then send.

Before you dial — scorecard open with their name on it · their application in front of you · quiet room · shift blocks memorised: 11am–3pm, 2pm–6pm.
